9. GENERAL RULES CONCERNING THE COMPETITION

- Only Official forms will be accepted, the forms will be attached to the next e-mail.
- Together with this bulletin we are sending you the kumite rules for children and junior, the kata rules, which will be the official ones for the Championship.
- All Ashihara organizations are accepted.
- It is obligatory to write down the name of the coach on the inscription to be accepted. Maximum number will be 2 coaches because in our competition will have two tatamis.
- Every Ashihara group from each country can register unlimited competitors per category and weight.
- The organizers have the right to cancel the event or modify categories and weight if there won't be an appropriate number of participants.
- Men and women are not allowed to compete against each other.
- The KUMITE competition among adult competitors will held in weight divisions.
- Competition organizers shall have the right to change weight categories, taking into account the number of competitors and the conditions of the competitions, with the sanction of the Türkiye Wushu Kungfu Federation Ashihara and Kyokushin Sport Branch Referee Committee and Tournament organizers. However this statement should be notified clearly in the application form of the competition.

- If it is discovered that the weight of a competitor exceeds the upper limit of the weight category they applied for at the weight-in procedure, the competitor will be given the opportunity to lose the excess if unable to do so they will be disqualified, or if possible (with the tournament Committee's approval) given the option to compete in the category above. If the weight of a competitor is less than the lower limit for this weight category, they can participate in the competition but the weight of the competitor shall be considered as equal to the lower limit of his weight category, if it is not possible to change category.
- In an individual bout one of the competitors is called "AKA" ("Red") and is differentiated by the red ribbon fastened to his belt on the back, and the other is called "SHIRO" ("White") and is differentiated by the white ribbon fastened to his belt on the back. The SHIRO competitor is called to the competition area first, and the AKA competitor second.
- The use of competitors' names causes problems of pronunciation and identification. Tournament numbers should be allotted and used on identifications (ZEKKEN) in addition to the names whenever possible.
- The competitors that do not present themselves when called within 1 minute will be disqualified (KIKEN).
- No competitor may be replaced by another.
- All competitors must always obey the Referee's orders.
- Coaches must present their accreditation together with that of their competitor to the designated area. The coach must sit in the chair provided and must not interfere with the smooth running of the match by word or deed. Only one coach is allowed to accompany a competitor to the competition area as his second.
- If, through an error in charting, the wrong competitors compete, then regardless of the outcome, that bout is declared null and void.
- Contest area should be covered with semi-hard matting.
- Türkiye Wushu Kungfu Federation Ashihara and Kyokushin Sport branch and AIF has the authority for the matters not described here.
